School leaver webinar

A fun and informative series of short, 30 minute webinars to support you with the next steps of your career journey!

We understand everyone is facing challenges just now and your plans may have changed or seem unclear due to the current situation. We want to let you know that our careers advisers are still here to help and provide you with the career information and guidance you need for your future.

Join our advisers, Hilary and Erin for our second session Thursday 11th June at 3pm on:

Preparing for interviews-

- General hints & tips (phone & video)
- Understand how Skills Development Scotland can help you
- Get actions and links to resources that you can do yourself
- Get involved with questions and comments
- Find out what future webinars to look out for
